On December 6th, one hour before the POAM Rally on Lansing, Chairman Chatfield, who is Speaker Pro Temp-elect, and Speaker-elect Tom Leonard informed POAM the OPEB package will not move in lame duck. You spoke and they listened. We appreciate the legislative leadership's pledge to work with POAM next term and involve us and our ideas in finding a solution to stabilize municipal finances.

The Rally was a huge success and served as a reminder to legislators that our members are engaged and demand to be part of the process when any legislation is introduced that has an impact on their families and careers.

There is no doubt that your letters, e-mails and phone calls to elected officials played an important role in killing the legislation in the lame duck session.

Please stay tuned for further updates as POAM continues to aggressively represent your interests in Lansing.

Sincerely,

POLICE OFFICERS ASSOCIATION
OF MICHIGAN
